NOTE FOR: The Director

RH —
I informed [redacted] today
about the reaction.

Here are the experimental briefing materials you requested for possible use with the Cabinet. The DDI has come up with two sets of briefings. One covers several current trouble spots: Brezhnev's health; Egypt-Libya; Eurocommunism; and Djibouti.

The second <sup>alternative</sup> is more detailed and relates to a single subject-- Soviet Economic Problems and Prospects. The latter, of course, would be of rather general interest to the entire Cabinet.

You said that you want to be able to plan on a five or six minute presentation. The amount of detail provided in this briefing material is in excess of that time frame; but I think either you or we can boil it down if you see fit.

*I like them both very much-- Believe we would shift around between 2-3 spot reports + 1 in depth review.
Next experiment ask them to keep it to 5 min -*
